Scholars Inn Bloomington, IN

Welcome to Scholars Inn. Located in Bloomington, Indiana, home of Indiana University, Scholars Inn has served the residents and visitors of Bloomington for almost 15 years. Owners Lyle and Kerry Feigenbaum take pride in offering the best quality in food and service and it shows. See what Scholars Inn has to offer through Piazza Produce!

Scholars Inn Bakehouse Granola is the World's Best Granola, period! At least that's what our guests tell us...and we believe them! Our classic recipe is made by hand, using the finest all-natural ingredients - hearty rolled oats, pecans, almonds, a touch of clover honey and a hint of vanilla. It is as healthy as it is great tasting. That's probably why the Head Chef of the Indianapolis Colts recommends it for his players. Quite simply, it could be the perfect food. It tastes great, is healthy, versatile and easy to digest. Enjoy it for breakfast with yogurt or milk, as a quick snack by itself, atop ice cream or as that special ingredient in baked goods. We are so proud of Bakehouse Granola and know that you and your guests will LOVE IT!

Looking to provide the finest in pastries, delicious desserts, or handmade breads to your customers? With over 200 wholesale customers, Scholars Inn Bakehouse has developed wonderful relationships across lines of industry for many years. But it's not just the big guys who love Scholars Inn products; we offer the highest quality products at competitive prices to local and regional eateries and shops, too.
