The Sweet Things in my life... I have the sweetest things in life...two amazing boys and family and the sweetest staff and place to come everyday. It is Sweet Things!

I've always preferred sweet things over lunch or dinner... so I am living the dream! Over the years, my passion for gourmet chocolates...creating, decorating and packaging have only increased. So after a career in interior design, and still raising my two great boys, I combined several of my favorite things into a true love: an elegantly decorated gourmet candy and unique gift shop loaded with nostalgic candy, gift baskets. So step into my wonderful world of Sweet Things are enjoy everything we have to offer!
