

Meet the Grower

J.R. Kelly Company Collinsville, IL

J.R. Kelly Company was founded in 1933 by Mr. J. R. Kelly. It was situated on produce row in St. Louis, Missouri, to market horseradish roots for the area growers. In 1974 a group of local growers purchased the company after the death of Mr. Kelly.

J.R. Kelly Company is located in the heart of horseradish country in Collinsville, Illinois, just 15 miles from St. Louis, Missouri. The site on which J.R. Kelly Company is located consists of 10 acres of property with 10,000 square feet of cooler space and 6,000 square feet of warehouse space. The fertile soil here creates the ideal environment for the production of high quality horseradish. We market ten to twelve million pounds of horseradish roots a year, making us the largest supplier of horseradish roots in the United States. Not only do we supply horseradish roots domestically but internationally as well, shipping tons of horseradish roots to all corners of the globe.

J.R. Kelly offers two different grades of horseradish roots, grade no. 1 and grade no. 2, for consumer purchase as well as our famous Kelly's Pride Sampler Pack. Our state-of-the-art cooler warehouses allow us to store and ship all our fresh horseradish roots all year round.

Grade No. 1 Horseradish Root

A main root of no less than 6 inches (15.24 cm) in length and no less than one inch (2.54 cm) in diameter. Grade No. 1 roots are available in five-pound increments up to 50 pounds and in 50 pound increments up to 200 pounds.

Grade No. 2 Horseradish Root

A main root of no less than 4 inches (10.16 cm) in length and no less than 1/2 inch (1.27 cm) in diameter. Grade No. 2 roots are available in 50 pound increments up to 200 pounds.

