Flamm Orchards Cobden, IL

Flamm Orchards, located in Cobden, IL, is owned and operated by the Flamm family with Ed and Bill Flamm from the fourth generation of family members represented in the day to day far operation and management. The fifth generation of the family Larry, Alan, Jeff, Mike, and Karen, assist the other managers by overseeing the operational aspects of the farm as well as product sales and distribution. The beautiful Flamm Orchards cover over 2,000 acres of the Illinois countryside and produce for the family apples and peaches.

In addition to their wonderful orchard fruit selection, the farm also produces ciders, jams, jellies, as well as other fruits and vegetables. This farm is truly a “family farm” in fact they are proud to say with so many family members involved in a 120 year old family business, we are now able to closely manage all production and sales to offer the Retailer only the best locally grown selections.” Be sure to enjoy the fruit from the wonderful Flamm Orchard this season!

Flamm Orchards is located in Cobden, IL just south of open 9am-5pm daily, beginning in May. Featuring a Fresh Fruit & Creme Stand serving delicious baked desserts.
