Bettini Pasta Indianapolis, IN

Andrea Bettini was born and raised in Mantua, Italy. His passion for food and music and his desire to radically change his life led him to move from Italy to Indianapolis Indiana. Starting at an early age Andrea worked alongside his mother in the preparation of classic Italian food. This experience has allowed him to develop a unique gift that culminated in starting Bettini Pasta in 2015.

Bettini Pasta is a Fresh Pasta Company located in the revitalized Massachusetts Avenue corridor near downtown Indianapolis. Through a member of the Italian Heritage Society of Indiana, Andrea met Tom Battista and his son Edward Battista and they had high esteem and desire for Andrea's ideas of introducing fresh pasta to the Indianapolis area. Also with their help, guidance and knowledge, Bettini Pasta has grown considerably in the last two years.

Bettini Pasta uses authentic Italian recipes from Andrea's background to make fresh pasta daily. Bettini Pasta is the freshest artisan pasta being served by many upscale restaurants and delicatessens in Central Indiana.

By keeping their hands in the process and using modern production methods, Bettini Pasta is able to produce large quantities of fresh artisan pasta.
